Dear Parents, carers and alumni

Over recent months, our whole school community has taken part in an important process to refresh and strengthen the vision and values that will guide The Blue Coat School in the years ahead. Students, parents, carers, staff, alumni and governors have all contributed generously through workshops, lessons, surveys and conversations. We are deeply grateful for the thought, honesty and care shown throughout.

Following this wide engagement, the Board of Trustees has formally approved our new vision and values for The Blue Coat School. These statements reflect both our proud history and our ambition for an inclusive, modern future – one in which every student can belong, flourish and thrive.

Our newly adopted vision states:

“At The Blue Coat School Liverpool, every student belongs, is valued, and is empowered to thrive. Guided by Non Sibi Sed Omnibus — not for oneself but for all — we honour our story with honesty while forging a modern, inclusive future.

We celebrate individuality and champion diversity, inspiring students to flourish in their own way with confidence, curiosity, resilience, and kindness.

Our vision is to ignite ambition and nurture integrity and compassion, preparing young people to shape a fairer, brighter world — in Liverpool and beyond.”

Alongside this, our values are expressed in a simple and clear set of principles that will shape behaviour, relationships and expectations across our school:

“Be kind. Work hard. Dream big. Together we flourish — safe, valued, and proud to shape a better world.”

These statements are rooted in our historic motto, Non Sibi Sed Omnibus, and remain focused on the personal, social and academic development of every young person in our care.

The Trustees and school leadership would like to extend sincere thanks to everyone who contributed their voice, ideas and reflections. This has truly been a collaborative effort, and the final outcome reflects what our community believes is most important about The Blue Coat School today and for future generations.

In the coming months, we will begin embedding our shared vision and values into the daily life of the school – in our curriculum, our culture, and the opportunities we provide for students to grow as confident, compassionate and ambitious learners.

Thank you again for partnering with us in this meaningful work. We look forward to continuing this journey together.

Kind regards

Mr K Sexton
